Dear Sir/Madam:

We recognize the Greater First Baptist Church, Bartlesville, Oklahoma to be sales tax exempt by statute pursuant to Title 68 O.S. 1993 Supp., Section 1356(7) which states:

"There are hereby specifically exempted from the tax levied by this article:

* * *

(7) Sale of tangible personal property or services to or by churches except sales made in the course of business for profit or savings, competing with other persons engaged in the same or similar business;"

This letter is valid only for claiming the sales tax exemption found in Title 68, Article 13.

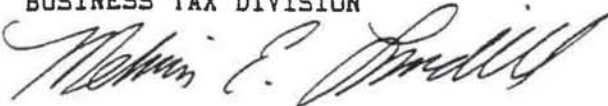

We do not issue "sales tax exempt numbers" to churches. You may provide vendors with a copy of this letter for documentation concerning your sales tax exemption. Any sales or purchases of tangible personal property and services to or by churches to be used directly in the furtherance of religious activities are exempt from sales and/or use tax. Travel expenses incurred on a reimbursable basis are not sales tax exempt.

The response contained in this letter applies only to the fact situation provided in your letter of June 16, 1994. Any change in the facts surrounding the transaction described, invalidates this letter. This letter may not be used by any entity other than the addressee.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to contact me at (405) 521-4316.

Sincerely,

BUSINESS TAX DIVISION
